PUBLIC NOTICE

LONDON BOROUGH OF BROMLEY THE FUTURE OF BROMLEY'S LIBRARY SERVICE

The Council gives notice that a period of consultation about options for the future of Bromley's Library Service is underway.

The options include:

- the development of community managed libraries
- market testing the core library service
- improving current library buildings

The Council are consulting about the future of the library services as further budget savings of more than £60 million must be made from a net budget of £206 million over the next four years. The future of every Council service is being examined carefully.

Initial findings will be reported to the R and R PDS (Policy Development Scrutiny) Committee in March following the consultation and the report will be published on the Council's website in due course.

Library users can express their views about the proposals until Monday 2 February 2015.

Visit www.bromley.gov.uk/libraries to complete the online survey or visit a local library.
